The Counting Crows

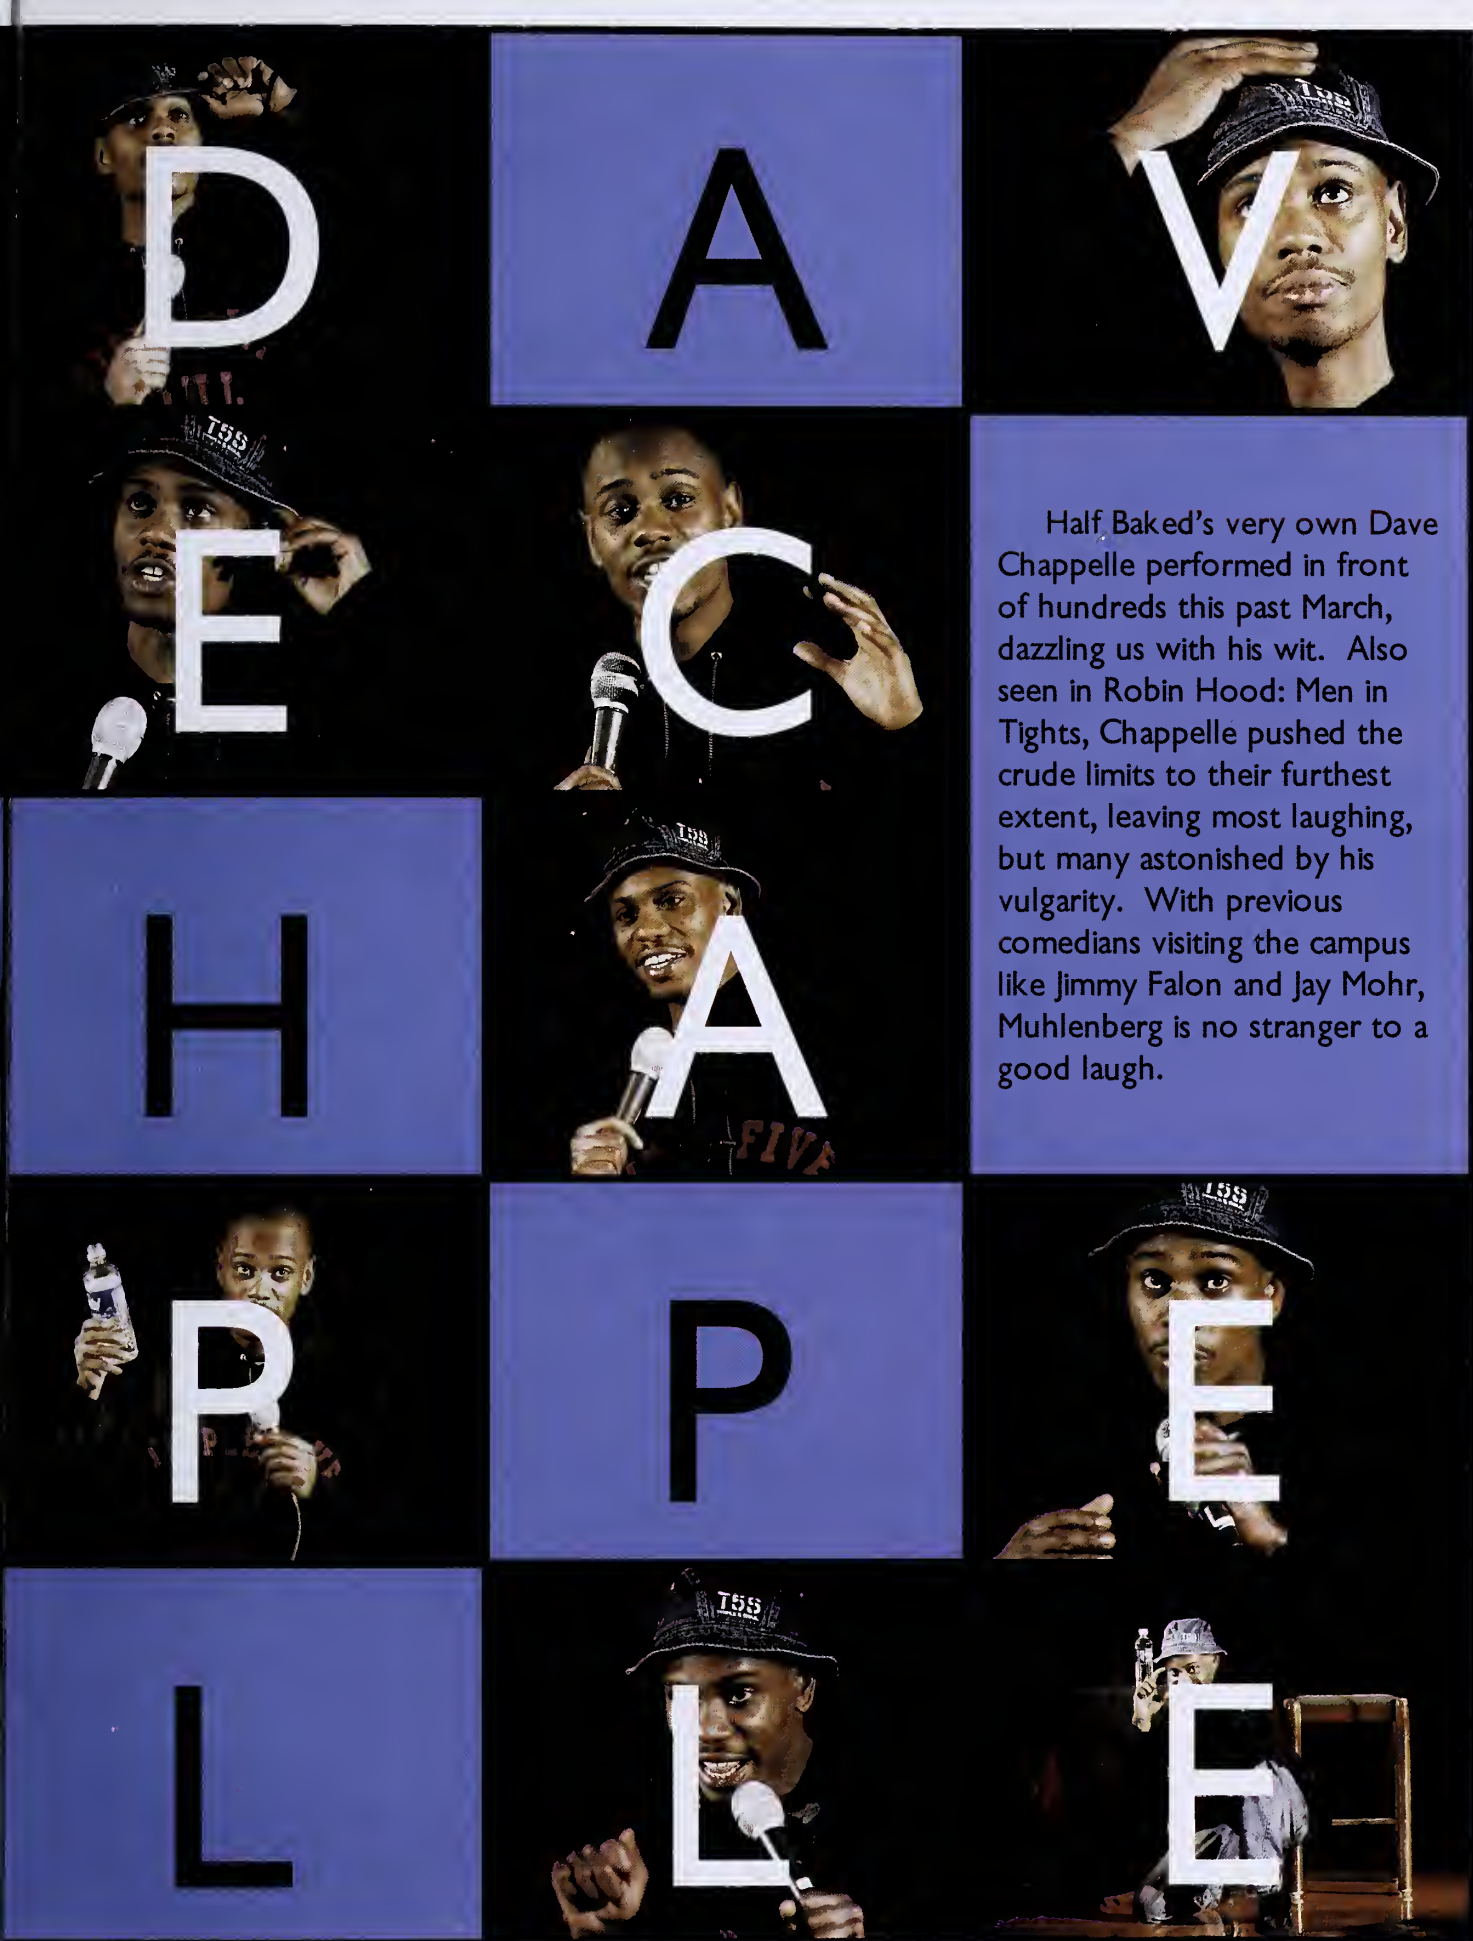

October 14th, 2001 marked a milestone in Muhlenberg entertainment as Counting Crows performed to a sold out crowd in Memorial Hall. With previous acts such as Smashmouth and Guster, this campus continues to bring in only the best. Performing classics like "Omaha", "Rain King", and "Goodnight Elizabeth", lead singer Adam Duritz left the crowd screaming for more. Continuously interacting with the crowd he called one of the best audiences, Duritz gave a glimpse of what was to come for the band and even told behind the lyrics stories in a VH1 story-tellers fashion. With an act of such high caliber, it's going to be tough to beat next time around.

Half Baked's very own Dave Chappelle performed in front of hundreds this past March, dazzling us with his wit. Also seen in Robin Hood: Men in Tights, Chappelle pushed the crude limits to their furthest extent, leaving most laughing, but many astonished by his vulgarity. With previous comedians visiting the campus like Jimmy Fallon and Jay Mohr, Muhlenberg is no stranger to a good laugh.

April 7, 2002

Mitzvah Day

Mitzvah Day at Muhlenberg College is a day of community service coordinated by Hillel and the Community Service Office. Each year students from every club and Greek organization volunteer their time and efforts to service the people of the Lehigh Valley. As well as helping the community, Mitzvah Day educates the students on the importance of service and responsibility to their community. April 7th, 2002 turned out to be a great success filled with innumerable "good deeds."

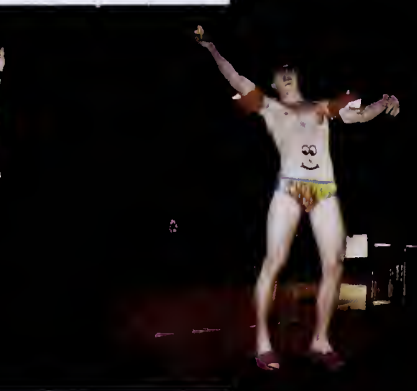

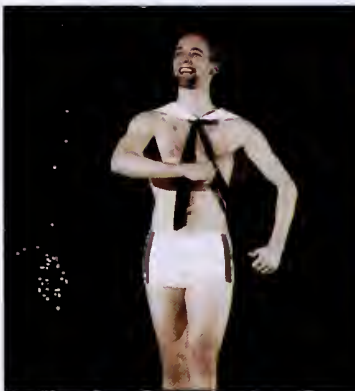

Mr. Muhlenberg

The end of March brought this year's Mr. Muhlenberg competition. Men from all walks of Muhlenberg life went head to head in talent, swimsuit, question and answer, and formal wear competitions to see who could cut it as this year's Mr. Muhlenberg. After Britney Spears' impersonations, a little "I've got friends in low places," and some of Michael Jackson's smooth moves; senior Scott Norville was crowned this year's Mr. Muhlenberg. Coming in a close second with his Oscar Meyer Weiner sing-a-long was sophomore Nick Scarduzio. And third runner up, Reshawn Person, dazzled the audience with his poetry reading and smooth moves. Opening with a nice Nsync medley, the hosts of the night's events kept everyone smiling and greatly entertained.

September 11, 2001 Memorial Ceremony

On December 7th, 2001, the Muhlenberg College Art Association hosted a Memorial Ceremony for the events that took place on September 11th. Three months of planning went into this ceremony, as clay was made available to all students who passed through the CA Galleria. With this clay, each passerby was invited to create a clay sculpture of his or her own, with the goal in mind of creating a clay sculpture for every victim claimed on September 11th. The closing ceremony was held in the CA Galleria, where those present were invited to buy back sculptures for a donation towards a permanent memorial to be established on campus. Entertainment by various pianists, the Muhlenberg Dance Team, and speakers was also provided at this event, and onlookers were encouraged to walk through a path of the thousands of sculptures composed in memorial for each victim.

I Cried for You Tonight

I cried for you tonight,
The smoke filtering through the sky,
I looked upon the Heavens,
And wondered why people must die.

I cried for you tonight,
A world enveloped by anger,
Baffled by the very idea,
Of being hated by faceless strangers.

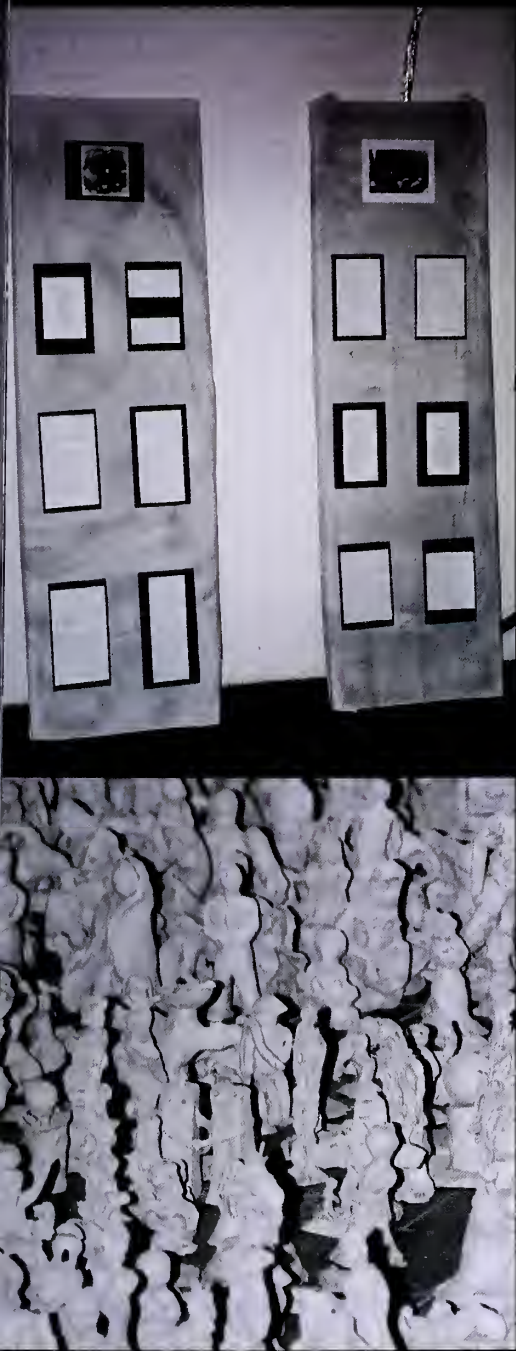

I cried for you tonight,
As I watched your towers fall,
Two buildings representing a family,
Twins which stood proud and tall.

I cried for you tonight,
For the chaotic streets and empty homes,
For parentless children huddled in shelters,
For families helplessly clutching their phones.

I cried for you tonight,
But found strength in the courage of our Nation,
That amidst the agony and pain,
People worked together to rebuild its foundation.

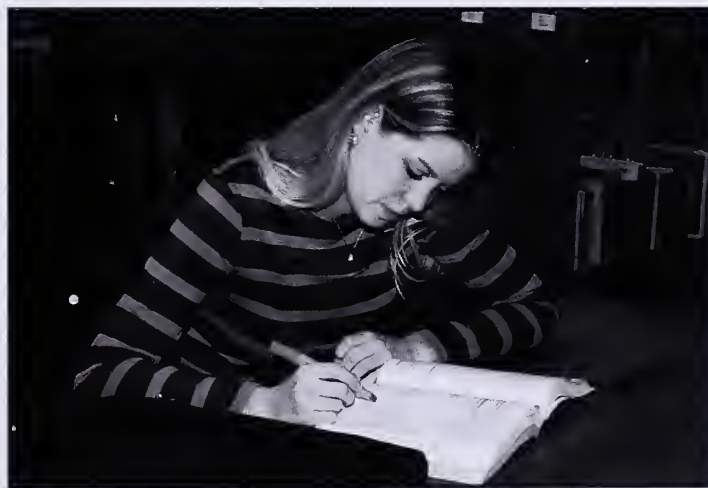

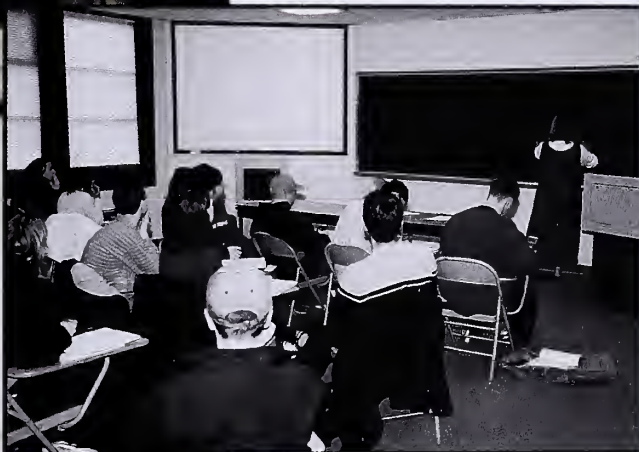

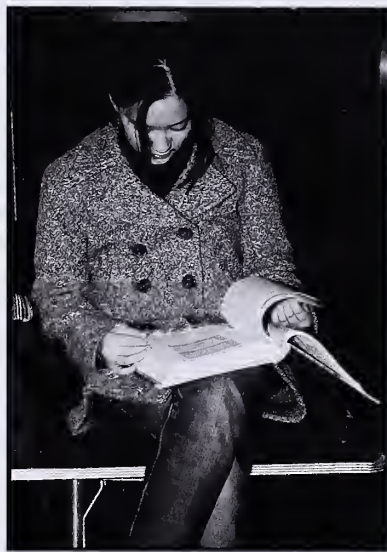

So I will cry for you tonight,
A world which will see a tomorrow,
And hope you will remember the tears,
Of your innocent child witnessing such horror.

EnAct

The Environmental Action Team had a very successful 2001-02 year in spreading environmental awareness and cultivating ecological literacy. EnAct sponsored Green Circles and Veggie Dinners, organized panel discussions and a tree-free paper campaign. They also planned recreational hikes, an indoor rock climbing trip, a bring your own mug root beer float party and an outdoor sleepover. In order to network with other students, secure more ideas for future endeavors, and take advantage of skills training, EnAct sent a contingency to the EConference 2001 at The George Washington University.

Communications Club

Many people ask us, what is communications? Communication is a field of study that involves the analysis of media and its impact on society, which can be looked at in many different perspectives. It is important for those interested in the media to be aware of how it functions so that it becomes easier to participate in our democratic society. There are also many methods for questioning values and morals, and expressing opinions when controversy appears in media issues. This particular major encompasses a wide range of job opportunities for those interested in the media.

The Ted Williams Villanelle

(for Ari Badaines)

'Don't let anybody mess with your swing.'

Ted Williams, baseball player

Watch the ball and do your thing.
This is the moment. Here's your chance.

Don't let anybody mess with your swing.

It's time to shine. You're in the ring.
Step forward, adopt a winning stance,
Watch the ball and do your thing,

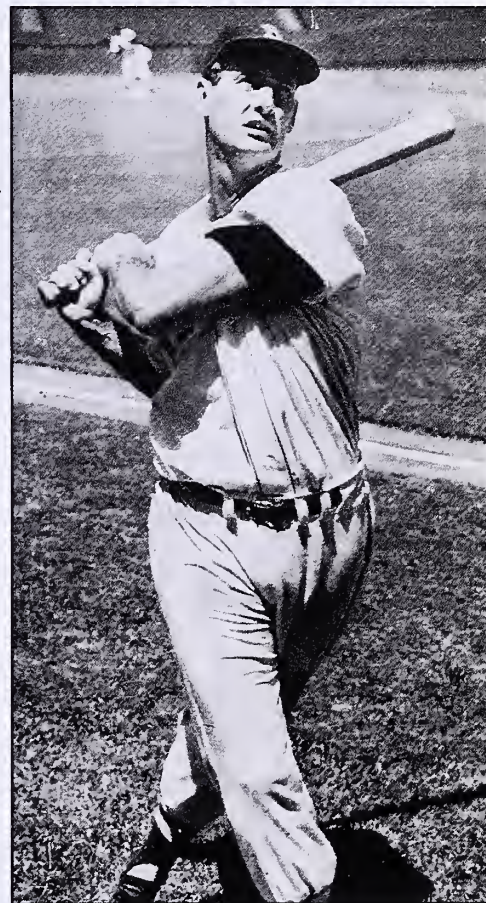

And while that ball is taking wing,
Run, without a backward glance.
Don't let anybody mess with your swing.

Don't let envious bastards bring
You down. Ignore the sneers, the can'ts.
Watch the ball and do your thing.

Sing out, if you want to sing.
Jump up, when you long to dance.
Don't let anybody mess with your swing.

Enjoy your talents. Have your fling.
The seasons change. The years advance.
Watch the ball and do your thing,
And don't let anybody mess with your swing.

Good Luck, Ben.
Love, Mom

Dear Christina,
Throughout the years you've been ambitious and determined to accomplish all of the things you set out to do. The motto that you've lived by, that "everything happens for a reason," has enabled you to face challenges with intelligence, imagination, humor, and strength. Your perseverance and commitment to go the extra mile is reflected in the many times you have chosen to travel that one stretch of road that, often, is not taken. This has helped to mold you into the person that you are today.

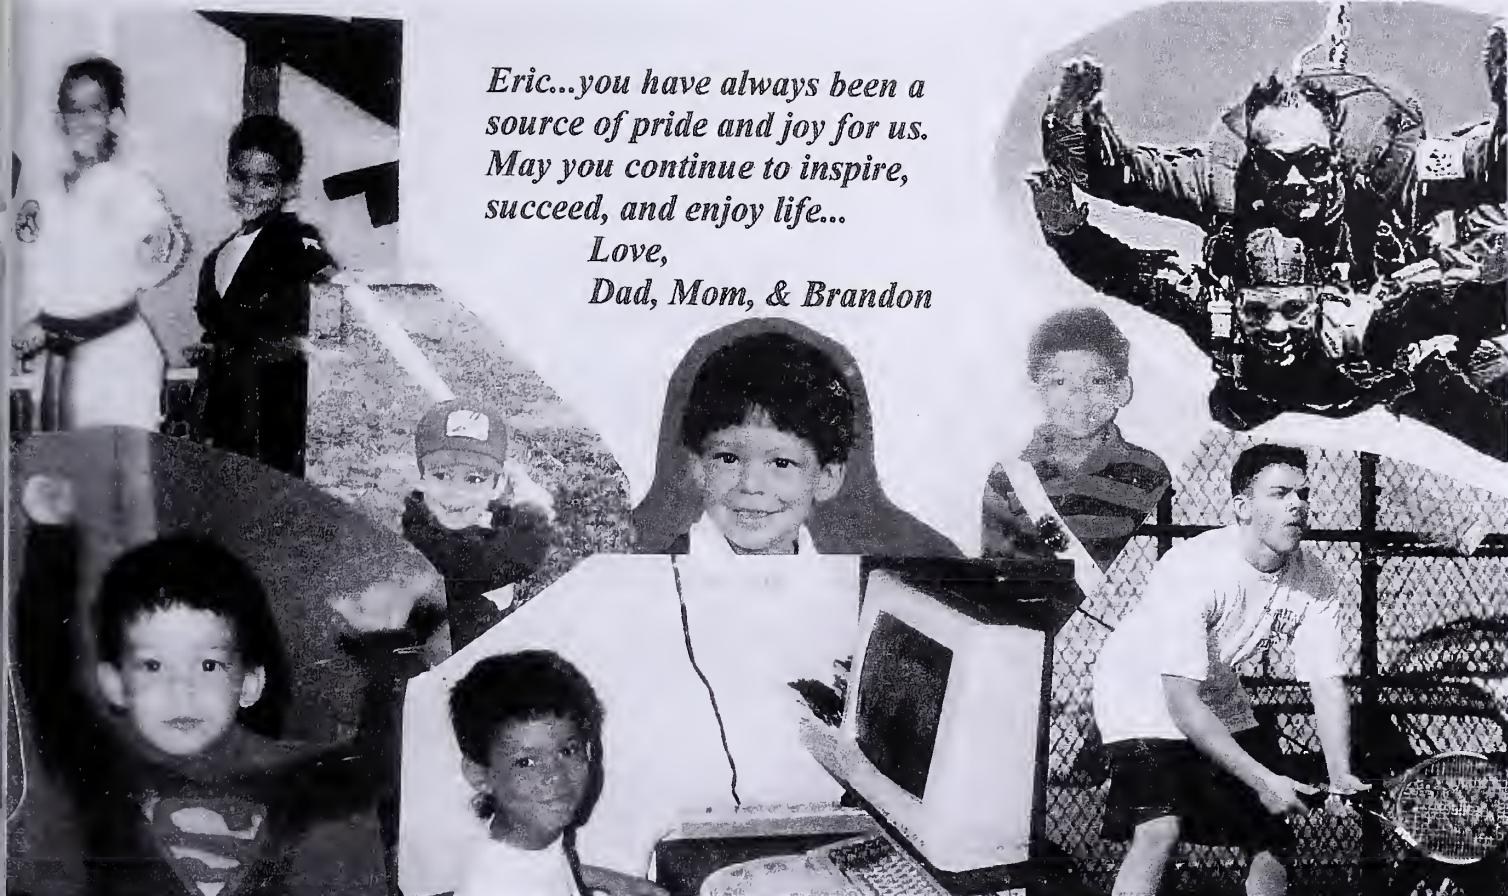

From infancy through the wonderful college years at Muhlenberg, we've been blessed to be part of your heartwarming smiles. Our wish is that those unending smiles will light your way to a bright, happy, and fulfilling future filled with dreams come true.

Congratulations and best wishes to you and the Class of 2002 !

All our love,

Mom, Dad, Joe, and family

Richard,

We are so proud of you. You have given us so much joy and happiness. It has been said that the best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen nor touched . . . but felt in the heart.

Pursue your dreams with all your heart.

Success and happiness in all that you do!

Forever love,
Mom and Dad

*I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
G-d forbid love ever leave you empty-handed*

*I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance*

I HOPE YOU DANCE

*I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Living might mean taking chances but they're worth taking
Lovin' might be a mistake but it's worth making
When you come close to selling out, reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance*

I HOPE YOU DANCE

Dear Camille,

For all your years, we have watched you come from a pertinacious little girl to a confident, self-reliant young woman... it has been sometimes difficult and sometimes laughable, but always a beautiful and loving transformation.

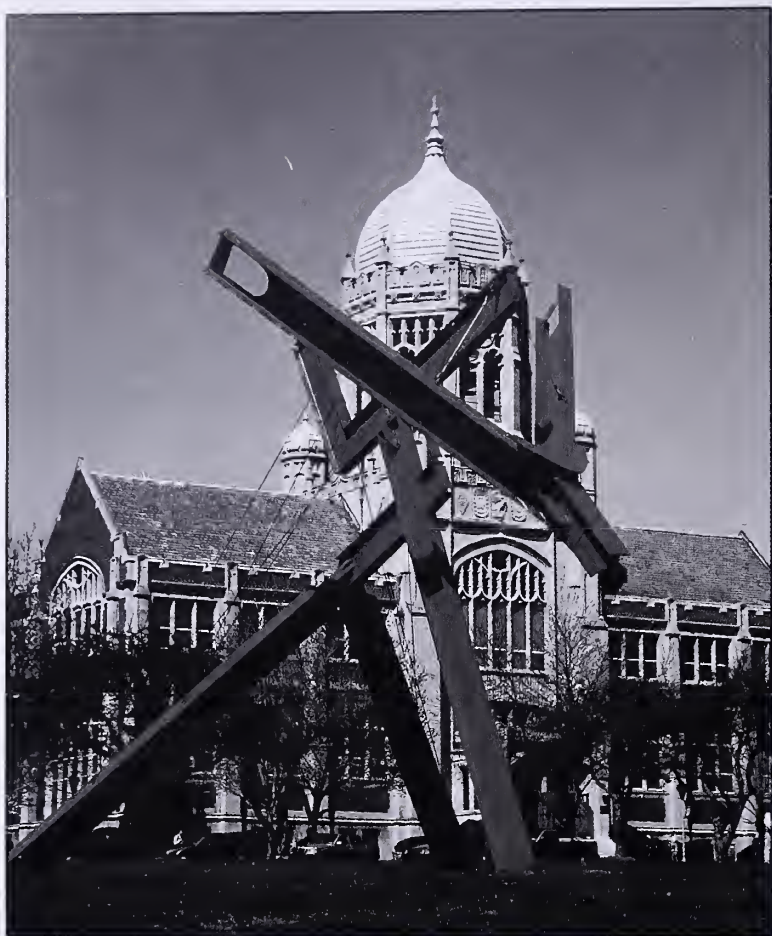

It seems it's always been about school and now it's about life... remember to always make plans from your dreams and your life will fall gently, beautifully and successfully into place. How proud we are of you!!

With love from our hearts to yours,
Mom and Dad
